Team Name: Boston University Division II

Mascot: Terriers

Location: Boston, MA

Captain(s)/Coach(s): President: Jack Dougherty, Coach: Robert Badzmierowski

2021/2022 NCBA Season Performance:

- 2021/2022 NCBA Season Record: 9-7
- Final Conference Ranking/Regional Tournament/World Series Results: 3rd in NE East
- Notables: Connor Burke, Bill Willett, Ryan Kang, Danny Isralowitz, Eric Stack, Eric Zhang, and Cheese Padilla

Fall 2022 Performance (If Applicable)

- 2022 Fall Record (NCBA Sanctioned Games Only): 3-6
- Notables: Danny Isralowitz, Eric Stack, and Evan Theis

Number of Returning Players: 26 returning players

Returning Past All Region/NCBA All American Award Winners: N/A

Players to Watch: Danny Isralowitz - BU's top hitter, Ryan Kang - game-changing player, Brendan Mathieson - pitcher returning from abroad, Eric Zhang - clutch power-hitter, Evan Theis - upcoming ace.

New additions: Brendan Galvin, Dylan Ling, Eli Chamblee, Ian Thomas, Sean Salvador, Trevor McKibben, and Will Blakely.

Biggest Rival: University of New Hampshire

Best Player Nickname: Golden Goose (Ryan Kang)

2022-2023 Season Outlook: BU looks to bounce back from a patchy start to the 2022-2023 season with some close losses dictated by errors. We'll begin our Spring season with some games in Panama City in early March followed by two away series and one home series back in Boston. With every player from the Fall team returning, along with Jack Dougherty and Ryan Kang returning from injuries, we expect to see improvements across the board while first-year coach "Coach Badz" continues to build chemistry between our mix of experienced seniors & large lower classmen group. Although it's going to be a steep hill to climb, we hope to bounce back and put ourselves in playoff contention by the end of April.

Manager Quote: "Once we overcome some minor obstacles, we are going to be a very tough team to face."

Manager Quote: "After playing musical chairs in the infield all last semester, I am hoping to see some spots solidify. We have lots of talent at every position and all we need to do now is work hard and develop. I expect a number of new players to compete for starting positions and with them our veterans. The pitching staff is getting more comfortable, and our hitters more aggressive. We have tons of new additions and a large group of guys who haven't even seen field yet. As long as we stay focused, I can see this squad going far either this or next semester."

2022-2023 Season Outlook: The Stags look to capitalize from last year after a successful fall season, going 8-4 in the NECBA and winning the title. After graduating 10 seniors, 10 new additions to the roster look to help the team compete in their first year in the NCBA division II. Returning starters Collin Craig, CJ Arena, Jared Covino, and Andre Briganti look to make a splash at the plate while Brendan Bartoli, Garrett Kingston, and Alex Lambalot look to hold down the pitching rotation. Mason Brenchak, Leo Cummings, and Stephen Parsons have already made their names known by winning team and conference players of the week. Newcomer Sheridan Dillon made an immediate impact on the bump taking home team and conference pitcher of the week honors. The Stags look to continue their in-conference play in the spring and capitalize on their 7-2 overall record.

Manager Quote: "Our boys are looking to stay hungry in the spring. We have a good group of players who feed off each other's energy, and that is what makes this team great," -CJ Arena

2022-2023 Season Outlook: This is Holy Cross’ first year in the NCBA, making it a season of many ups and downs. Plagued with injuries and losing players that have studied abroad, the Crusaders have never been at full-strength in any game. Since being swept in their opening series, the Crusaders have improved on both sides of the ball and are looking to carry this momentum into the spring portion of the season.

Manager Quote: “We are grateful to be new members of the NCBA because of the high level competition that the league brings. All of our guys are true competitors, and we’ve enjoyed the advanced play despite the ups and downs. This has been a positive learning experience for us all, and it has been an amazing opportunity to improve the club as a whole. We’re getting better and better each week, and we have guys who put in the work to get better, so we expect the team to take big strides by the spring.” - Tommy Johnson

2022-2023 Season Outlook: The Saints look to battle for a playoff spot, with games against Rochester and Cortland remaining on their schedule. Siena has shown over the past two years that they can compete against any team in any division within the NCBA. A mix of younger talent and veteran experience should position Siena for short-term and long-term success.

Manager Quote: “Our team has a good mix of younger and older players who all contribute towards winning baseball games. We have proven over the past year that we are able to compete with teams in any division at our best. Consistency from game to game is an area that needs improvement, but our best against anyone else’s best, is a game in our favor. April 15th will be an exciting series against our rivals that we are looking forward to as an organization.” - Alex Russo (President)
